Sunday October 8
A classical music evening with the piano trio “VIOPIACE”
Technopolis 20 Cultural Center
Time: 8.00 p.m.

The newly established piano trio, “Viopiacce”, will perform for the first time at Technopolis 20 on October 8, 2017. Viopiacce was brought together by its members’ love for music and desire to express themselves with the music of their favourite composers. Thus, they included in their programme works for trios written by L. v. Beethoven, A. Piazzola and for piano-violin and piano-cello and duets written by J. Williams, A. Piazzola and G. Faure. Pianist Nina Ioannidou, violinist Spyros Spyrou and cellist Maria Avramidou are the members of Viopiacce.

For Duncan Lamb, music and art are synonymous, speaking the same language, both generating emotional responses. Art and music feed the heart and soul, responding directly to the human experience. As the boundaries between art and popular music become increasingly blurred, so Duncan draws here on his personal experience as a designer/artist /illustrator to create a body of work referencing pop portraiture.
